Celebrate a Special Occasion

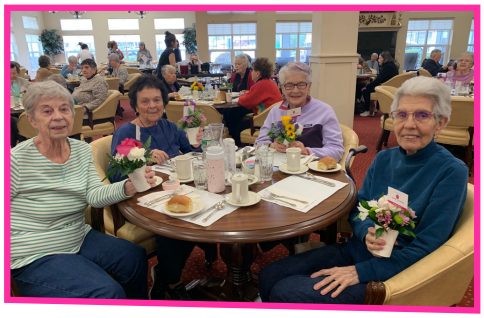

Do you ever get stuck with purchasing a special gift for a loved one? Sometimes it's just easier to buy a gift card, place it in a greeting card, and celebrate! What if you could turn your gift into something much more personal? Something that celebrates your bond?

Why not consider a tax deductible donation to Power of Flowers Project in honor of a birthday, anniversary, wedding, retirement, graduation, or just because. We'll make sure the honoree receives a letter informing them that YOU thought to share their special occasion with us, by donating in their honor. What better way to add a personal touch to make someone's day!
